Most People Laugh At Such Things!

Most people laugh when they see physically or mentally handicapped people.

They also laugh at poor people in rags, people who have nothing to cover themselves with.

What should be the attitude of a Child of God in such matters?

Anita had an experience in school that she shares with her loving and caring Mom. They then have an open and frank discussion. Let us read that story via this comic!

You look very happy today Anita!

Mom, we had great fun teasing this new boy. We all laughed much!

Teasing a boy? What do you mean baby?

Mom, he joined our school today. He walked with a limp. Some boys started teasing him for his handicap. He was upset. Then all the girls laughed at him. He then wept and we all laughed more!

Ok, so here was a boy with a weakness. All of you teased and laughed at him, and he wept. You had fun. Right?

You are right mom! We had fun. You should have been there!

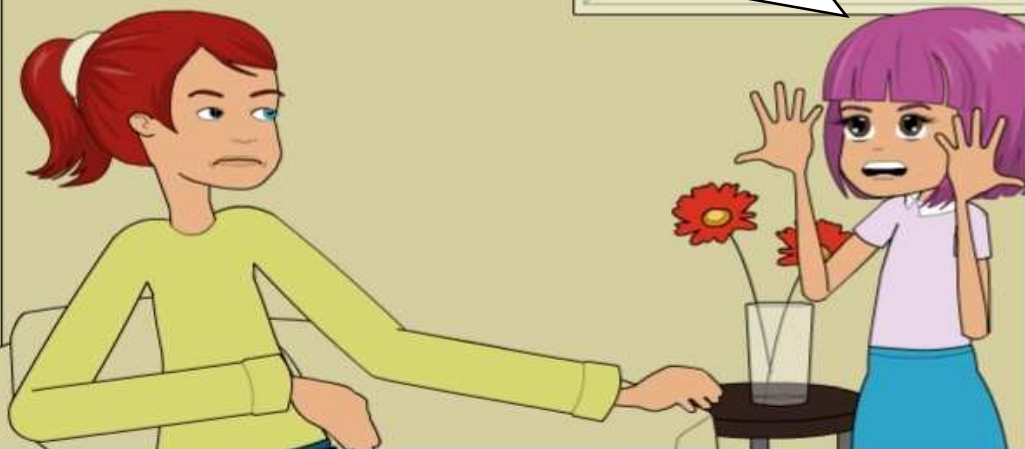

Do you remember when you visited your grandparents for vacation. A poisonous thorn pierced your sole.

Yes, it was very painful mom! I limped for two weeks.

Oh mom! It was so painful for two weeks.
Embarrassing also as children in church teased me for limping!

So, you already know
the pain of limping. You also know the pain of being teased unfairly!

Oh, yes mom, I do.
It made me upset, it made me sad. I wanted to run away

Then why did you give similar pain to another child? He was so hurt he wept in class you said.

Oh mom, I had never thought of it that way. When they all teased him, I joined them without thinking. I am sorry!

I'm glad you realize your mistake. I will tell you a few things so you do not repeat this in any situation.

Do you realize from your own experience of limping that anyone can become handicapped any time?

Yes Mom, I do realize!

That this child had no control over his sad handicap when he was born. Is it not?

Yes Mom, now I realize it!

Every child is created in the image of God? God purposely allows some to be born with imperfections. If we mock them, then we mock God. Isn't it?

Yes Mom!
Now I realize. I will never do it again!

One more thing! Get friendly with that boy. Do to others what you want others to do to you. Do not be discouraged if others laugh at you for talking to that boy. God's children should always do the right things.

Sure Mom! I will do that. I will also become his best friend!

Always remember this: A child of God should do ONLY those things that glorify God. This includes doing to others what you want others to do to you! This also includes helping those who are weaker than you.

Thanks Mom! You are a great Mother, guide, and teacher. I will try my best never to disappoint you!
