Well! Well!! See Who's here, Ashish and Abhishek! How nice to see you the smart guys once again! Tell me how I can be of help my intelligent friends today?

Doc P, the other day you said that a few individuals influenced the Christian faith in a highly negative way. Today we both are free. So, would you be able to tell us now about those people?

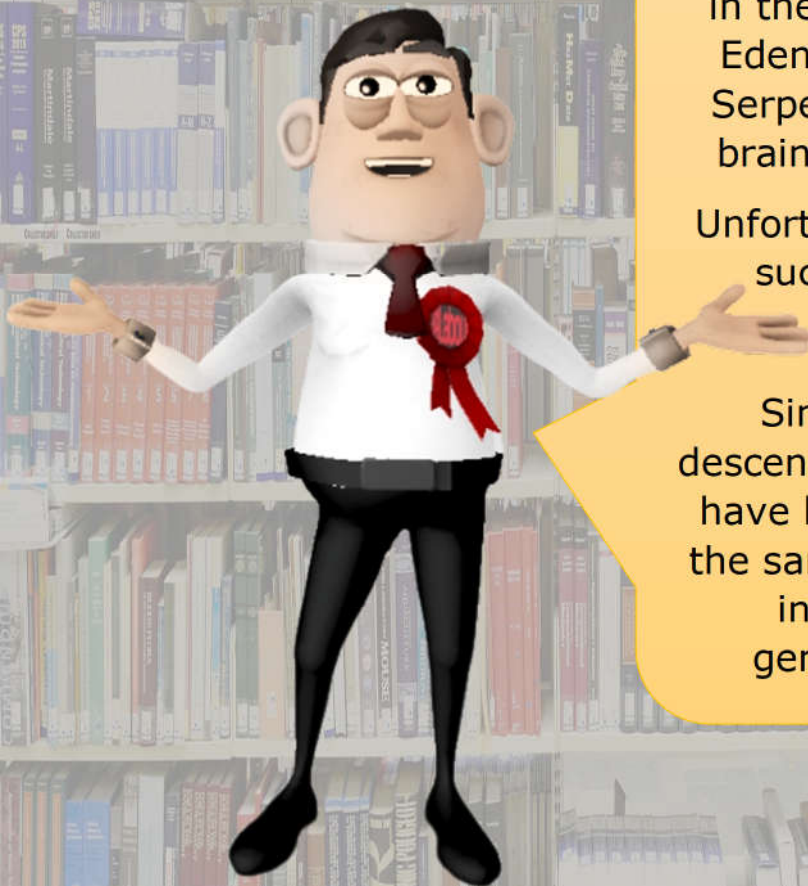

Sure! Sure!!

In fact, EVERY Christian should know about the people and movements that have adversely influenced Christian minds!

It all started right in the garden of Eden when the Serpent tried to brainwash Eve.

Unfortunately, he succeeded.

Since then descendants of Eve have been facing the same problem in every generation.

What exactly do you mean Dr. P by "facing the same problem in every generation"?

Eve was brainwashed in Eden to reject God's direct command. Similarly, many powerful individuals and movements have tried to brainwash Christians all throughout the centuries.

I am NOT under any such influence Dr. P.
NOBODY has been able to influence my thinking in biblical matters!

Hmm, is that
so. So, which was the first gospel they wrote?

Of course, everyone knows that Mark was the first gospel to be written.

Amazing!

And you say you are not influenced by anti-Bible thinkers! This whole Mark-priority story was invented by anti-Bible people in 1800s. This is a good example of what I was saying. Everyone has been brainwashed to a degree by anti-Bible thinkers and writers!

Now it is obvious to you both that all Christians have been heavily influenced by many anti-Christian thinkers and writers.

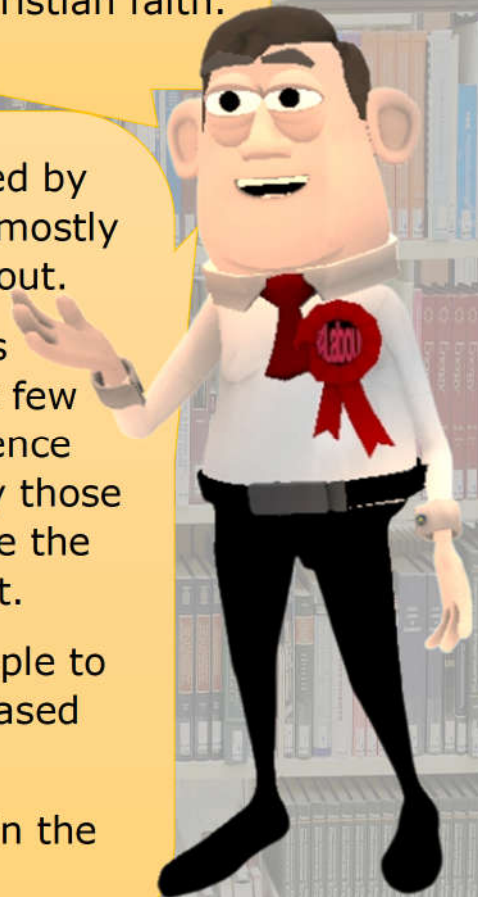

Due to the increased freedom worldwide to speak or write practically anything, the last four centuries have been a time of attack against the Christian faith.

This freedom was used by many common people mostly to speak their mind out.

This freedom was also used by a select few who wanted to influence people to think the way those men wanted. They are the real destructive lot.

They brainwashed people to think against Bible-based ideas.

I will introduce them in the next few pages.

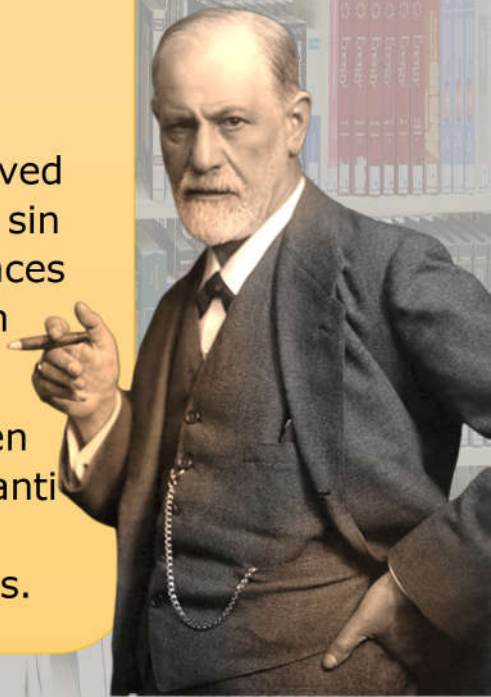

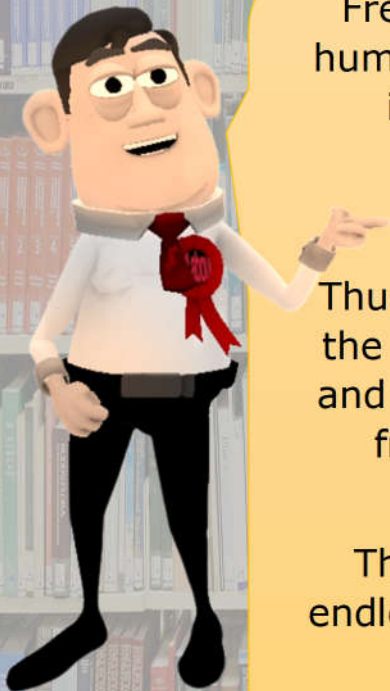

Everyone has heard the name Sigmund Freud 1856 – 1939. His name is synonymous with modern Psychology, though he was not the actual founder of psychology.

He is so famous because he gave to psychology what everyone wanted in his generation – an evolutionary and godless explanation of how the human mind works.

Freud redefined human psychology in terms of evolution.

Thus, he removed the concept of sin and consequences from human behavior.

This has given endless joy to anti Christian propagandists.

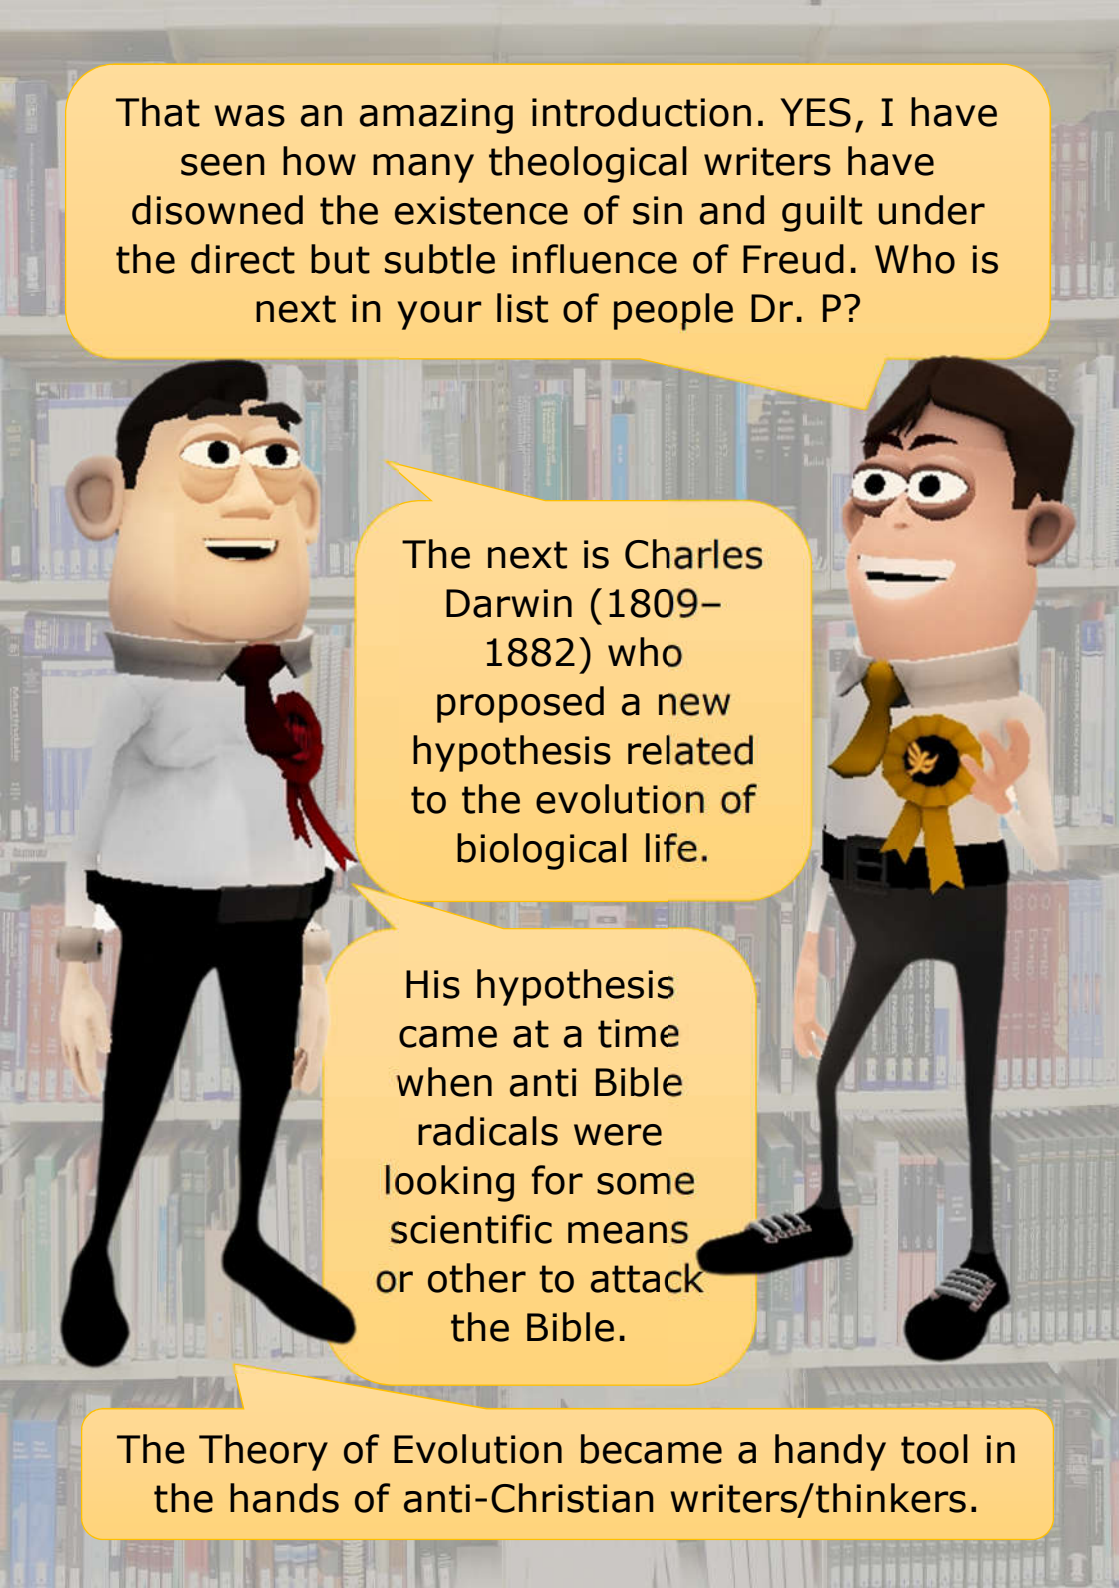

Freud gave a great tool of anti-Christian manipulation to all kinds of thinkers opposed to the Christian faith. They in turn used Freudian theories (all unestablished even today) to rewrite psychology. Sociology, and even theology.

According to Freud NOBODY is responsible for what they do. He placed the responsibility solely upon circumstances and, especially, upon one's past. This way he brain-washed people into thinking they are not responsible for their actions.

This in turn wiped out the sensitive conscience of entire generations of Christians and non-Christians and changed the human society for the worse! It laid one of the foundations for the moral relativism catastrophe witnessed today.

That was an amazing introduction. YES, I have seen how many theological writers have disowned the existence of sin and guilt under the direct but subtle influence of Freud. Who is next in your list of people Dr. P?

The next is Charles Darwin (1809–1882) who proposed a new hypothesis related to the evolution of biological life.

His hypothesis came at a time when anti Bible radicals were looking for some scientific means or other to attack the Bible.

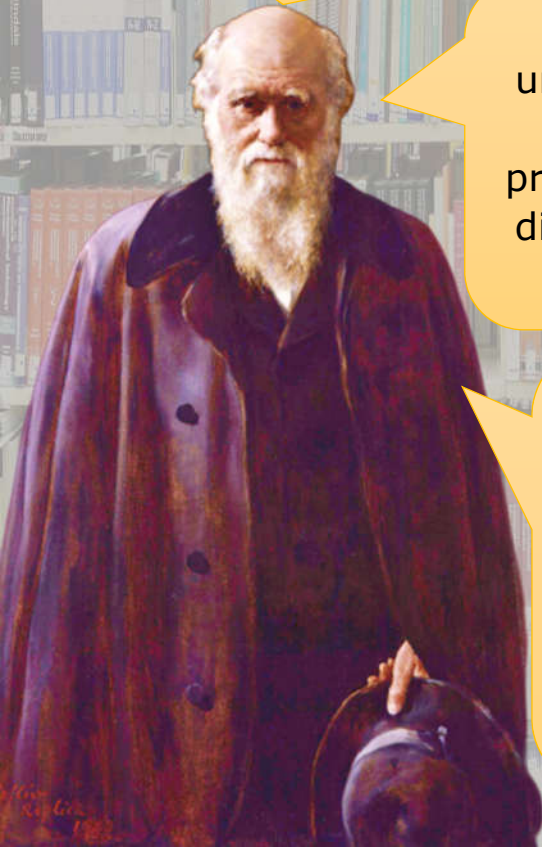

The Theory of Evolution became a handy tool in the hands of anti-Christian writers/thinkers.

Charles Darwin was a brilliant scientist. He was also completely anti-God in his thinking.

My hypothesis, widely known as the Theory of Evolution, proposed that all life came by blind chance. Soon numerous others used this theory as the basis to propose that EVERYTHING in this Universe is the result of blind chance. In this way they eliminated the idea of God, divine revelation, and the Christian faith which depends upon revelation from a God (who does not even exist according to my speculation)!!

My theory remains unproven even a century and a half after I proposed it. In fact, many discoveries go against all what I proposed.

Fortunately, using an unproven assumption, I won the battle and today everyone from scientists up to theologians eats from my hand. I am the ultimate winner.

Dr. P, how is it that so many highly intelligent Christian theologians have fallen for this kind of brainwashing?

Dr. P, what is the secret of this success of evil over good? After all, we expect Christians to choose that which is good, not evil!

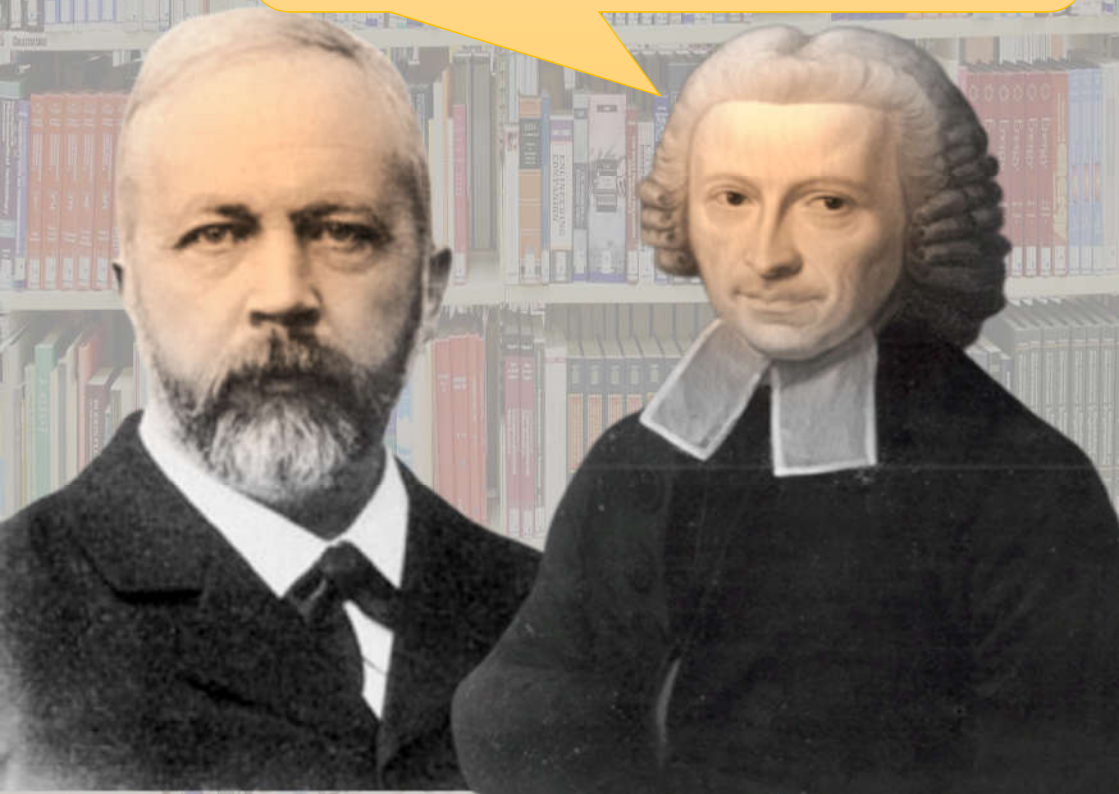

Ashish and Abhishek, you need to understand that these anti-Christin thinkers did not use any kind of established data to fight against the Bible. Rather, they used clever mind-manipulation techniques. That is how they control Christian minds worldwide now!

The next two people who brainwashed Christians against the Bible are Julius Wellhausen (1844–1918) shown on the left and Gottlob Christian Storr (1746–1805) shown on the right. Both were German theological radicals.

I proposed a cunning hypothesis that Moses did not write the first five books of the Bible: because I did not believe that the Bible is God's word.

I proposed a deceptive hypothesis that Matthew, Mark, and Luke were not historical documents because I too did not believe that the Bible is God's word.

Gottlob Christian Storr and Julius Wellhausen the Germans lived in a Generation when Germany was the center of worldwide Higher Education

European countries had become obscenely rich by plundering the world by using superior naval and fire power.

Bible seminaries in Europe at that time were filthy rich and were manned by plenty of godless professors who were avowed radicals.

Thus, they brainwashed the theological circles worldwide to accept their skeptical and radical views as "facts". Actually, these were only hypotheses without any evidence whatsoever!

Wellhausen's claim that the first five books of the Bible were not written by Moses has been discredited by many discoveries, but many seminaries continue to teach it as fact due to heavy brainwashing.

The theological radical Gottlob Christian Storr completely disbelieved in the historicity of the gospels. So, he came up with the totally unproven hypothetical claim that Mark (who was not an eyewitness) wrote the first gospel. This implied, according to him, that the first gospel to be written was NOT historically reliable.

He then used this unproven assumption to claim that Matthew and Luke simply copied and expanded from Mark, making them much more unreliable than Mark – which was not reliable anyway, according to him.

Many 'evangelical' seminaries now teach the above unproven hypothesis under the scholarly-sounding name "Synoptic Gospel". They spend 60 to 90 hours to teach their students this fallacy. Finally, they graduate from seminary with the firm belief that the gospels are only imaginations, not historical records.

Ashish and Abhishek, I have mentioned only a few representative names. I hope this is sufficient for both of you to understand that that a few individuals have definitely influenced the Christian faith in a highly negative way.

Yes, Doctor P, I do understand the problem now. What can I do on my part?

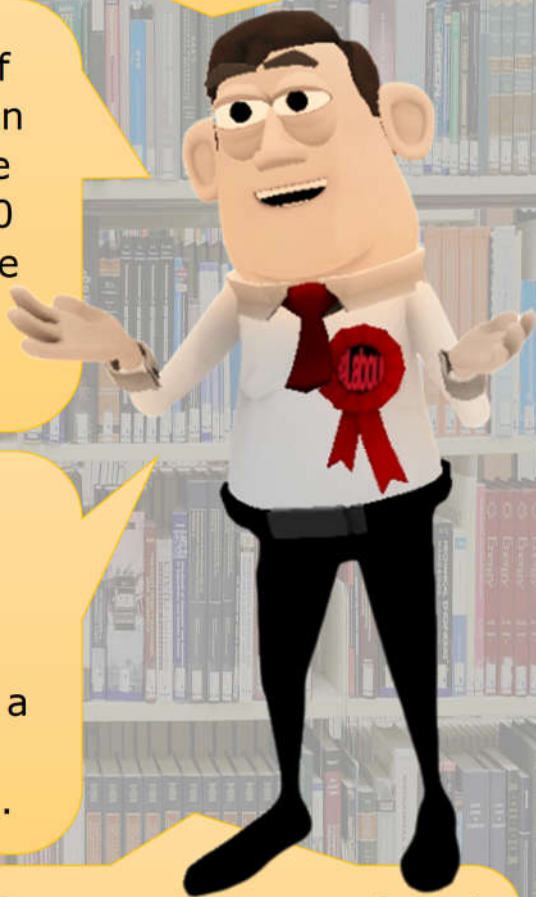

Yes, Doctor P, I too understand the problem now. How can I help the situation?

Whether it is Ashish, Abishek, or anyone who reads this book – you can help the situation by asking a single question: “is this an established fact or a mere hypothesis”. If it is merely a hypothesis against the Bible, then reject it.

Tens of thousands of hypotheses have been proposed against the Bible in the last 2000 years. However, none of them has stood the test of time.

According to well established legal-historical principles, ONLY established facts can be used as a witness against a person or a proposal.

Unfortunately, many Christians accept each and every unproven hypothesis that anti-Christians keep bringing up. This a few individuals have definitely influenced the Christian faith in a highly negative way.

I am not finished yet. The most persuasive of them was Alice Bailey (1880–1949) who established the Lucifer Publishing Company. Every Christian knows who Lucifer is. She projected Lucifer as humanity's friend and Jehovah (=Lord Jesus) as the biggest enemy.

Things as diverse as torn/dirty jeans as desirable, long hair for men as fashion, and anarchy as a way of life have all come from her prompted by her 25 or so many books – dictated to her by Dhvaj Khul, a demon.

Nobody realized that my ultimate goal was to destroy the Christian community by undermining their faith and doctrine. A community that is not loyal to its Scriptures is a weakened and, therefore, destroyed community.

In a clever and persuasive manner, I introduced the concept of New Age, an age of happiness. What I really meant was, an age in which Satan and his principles dominate the world.

The New Age philosophy gave rise to the Ecumenical movement, hippie movement, addiction to anarchy, tolerance of all viewpoints (except conservative Christian viewpoint), destruction of the biblical concept of family, easy abortion, easy divorce. It also supported all kinds of sexual perversion by getting them decriminalized.

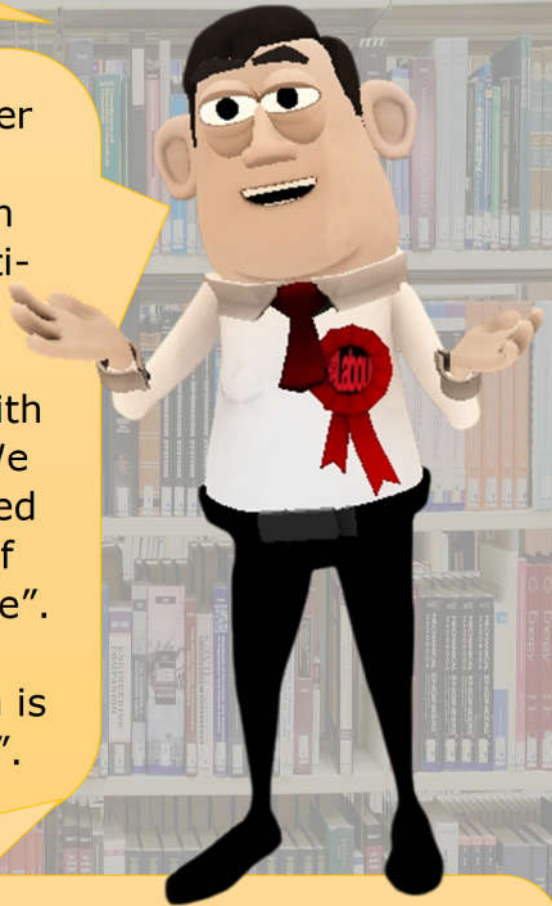

The end-result is "moral relativism", the idea that moral values are simply relative.

By now it is obvious even to a casual observer that numerous thinkers fought to control the way Christians think. They used cunning strategies known only to propagandists (but not to others).

Today a good number of our beliefs and practices have been shaped by these anti-Christian thinkers.

Many of us have become lax in our faith and commitment. We have become addicted to the philosophy of "who are you to judge".

WE overlook that proclaiming the truth is not "judging others".

Surveys have shown that the majority of Christians worldwide have fully adopted "moral relativism" so that their values are exactly the values of the world. This is all the result of brainwashing. A change is needed. Start thinking. Start asking. Start analyzing.

Dr. P, both of us would love to hear more about "Moral Relativism". Pray tell us, what its beliefs and practices are!

Well, Ashish and Abhishek, Moral Relativism is a massive subject. It claims that theft, immorality, murder, cheating, and other activities that Christians or the Bible label as sinful are not really sinful. Rather, according to Relativism, the purpose or circumstance will make some of it perfectly alright in most cases.

Of all the harmful philosophies propagated against the entire mankind, Moral Relativism is the most damaging one. In one stroke it destroys Christian as well as non-Christian societies.

Moral Relativism needs a detailed discussion of its own for me to make clear how cunning and at the same time how dangerous this philosophy is.

Moral Relativism has already ruined many countries, and the rest are on their way to ruin. As a result, there is increased anarchy inside and outside the Church.
